

News Release

November, 2008

Shell announces its support for Bethany's Homework Clubs

Shell Geelong Refinery recently announced Bethany and Glastonbury Child & Family Services as social investment beneficiaries for the coming three years.

The announcement was made at a function to thank organisations and employees involved in Shell's 2008 community development activities.

Shell has elected to support the Homework Clubs in the Northern Suburbs, which Bethany piloted in 2008