At Bethany we celebrate diversity and innovation. We embrace creating a connected organisation which enables all service users, employees, students, contractors, and volunteers to feel safe from discrimination. We support an inclusive environment where people of all genders and ages, people living with a disability, First Nations people and people from LGBTI and CALD communities feel empowered to contribute their experiences and ideas; knowing that these will be valued.

Bethany acknowledges and pays respect to the Traditional Aboriginal owners of country throughout Australia, their culture and Elders past, present and future

About Bethany Community Support

Bethany Community Support is an independent, not-for-profit community services organisation supporting women, men, children and families. Established in Geelong in 1868, we have a long history of providing quality and innovative services to meet the needs of local people.

When you contact Bethany you will be connected to the services which best meet your needs, from a broad range of programs delivered from multiple sites across the region.

We are committed to consistently delivering safe, effective, connected and person led practices.

What we do

- Help build better relationships
- Support the education, wellbeing and safety of children
- Support women and children affected by family violence
- Assist men who use violence to become accountable for their behavior
- Provide disability services under the NDIS
- Assist people who are homeless or at risk of homelessness
- Assist people experiencing financial stress and provide material aid
- Help those affected by problem gambling
- Support parents in their parenting role

Most of our services are free. You may require a referral for some programs. Please visit our website to find out more:
